

WAFAPA SPRING MEETING - 2010

April 17th, 2010

Hold the date !!!!!

Hopefully you're surviving the cold and snow that our "Wisconsin Winter" is throwing at us this year and are already looking forward to our Annual Spring Wisconsin Air Force Academy Parents Association meeting. We're in the process of finalizing details, but the date is set, with the location to be in Madison Wisconsin. We have a ton of information to cover, so you won't want to miss it.

As you may recall, we have lined up some awesome speakers the past few years, and are working on another great speaker for this year - I don't want to tip any hands yet, but you won't want to miss it!!

Additional information will be coming out soon, but in the meantime, HOLD THE DATE, and please contact me with any questions you may have regarding this event.

April will be here soon!
